NAVIGATE YOUR FUTURE NOW

SAIL provides an opportunity for students with any disability [ages 13-21] to pursue additional education and personal development concurrent with middle school or high school studies. Through interactive learning about:

- Self-Advocacy
- Disability Awareness
- Setting & Achieving Goals
- Brief History of the Disability Rights & Laws
- Personal Interests, Strengths, and Skills
- Social & Independent Living Skills
- Discovering & Engaging Support Systems
- Social & Recreational Opportunities
- Problem Solving
- Communication Skills

- Resources In Community

MEANINGFUL OUTCOMES

Students will be provided with the tools to become empowered to enable them to live more independent lives. Start Date: TBA SAIL's existence is a collaborative effort with the main intent being that of facilitating an optimal transition to adult life. Students involved with SAIL will receive:

- Over many hours of interactive instruction (to be held 2-3 times a week)
- Instruction from DAWN's Independent Living Transition Specialist, Helen Bradfield, a certified Teacher of the Handicapped, and part time assistants
- Training that will enable students to set a personal goal and take appropriate steps to achieve it
- An invitation to participate in a 4 hour social learning event in the community
- Participate in a celebratory ceremony to acknowledge the completion of the SAIL program
